upcoming:

*As we get closer to the Living Wax Museum, please let me know if you have any questions. Just to remind you, we will do all the research (last week and this week) and writing (next week) in class. Students will need to create their display and costume at home. They will also need to practice their 30 second presentation at home. We still have a good bit of time to work on this project. Speeches will not go home until the end of NEXT week (Oct 31). You will need the speech before work can really begin on the board.

*Parent Conferences begin this week.

*This week we will begin learning about Multiplication and Division. We have condensed these chapters (Ch.4-7). We will take quizzes after each chapter with a cumulative test after Ch. 7.

*If the students would like to read the bible from their device, please make sure they have access to NIV. I recommend the You Version. app.
